

NSOU Journal of Social Sciences

ISSN: 2581 5512

Volume 4

Number I

December 2023

CONTENTS

Message from Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, NSOU	5
Theme	6
Editorial	7
Exploring Indigenous Education in Colonial India: A Historical Analysis Md Siddique Hossain	8
An Annalist for the 'Silent Millions': W.W. Hunter's Annals of Rural Bengal and the Colonial Construction of 'Tribal' Identity Dr Krishnokoli Hazra	20
Colonial Discourse and the Transformation of Indian Society: A Sociological Analysis Soumitra Sarkar	32
Revisiting Indian Family- A Study on Emerging Daughter-Centric Families among Middle-Class Bengalis in Siliguri, West Bengal Dr. Priyanka Karmakar	45
Colonial Mentalité and Promethean Man: How Organised is the Colonial Knowledge? Pallab Somaddar	57
Meritocracy Versus Elitism: Transition of Knowledge and Curriculum From Colonial Indian Society to 75 th Year of Indian Independence Paramita Mukherjee, Dr. Minara Yeasmin	66

---

Beyond Revolutions: An Overview of Social Movements in India and their Influence on Knowledge Dynamics in Colonial Society. Saeed Anowar	73
Trade Politics Between British and the Dogras in Ladakh (19 th Century) Dr. Phunstog Angmo	82
Changing Profile of Tribal Women's Property Right Dr. Sreeparna Chakraborty	92
Creation of Knowledge in Colonial Indian Society : Negotiation Between Majestic Agencies and Indigenous Knowledge System Md Asadullah, Dr. Minara Yeasmin	106
The colonial idea of girlhood and the Muslim identity: Grounding poverty and gender in urban Bengal Dr. Srabanti Choudhuri	117
Book Review 1
Rivers, Society, and Culture: Environmental Perspectives on the Rivers of Assam and Bengal. Moniruna Debnath	125
Book Review 2
Giving Voice to the Voiceless? : The Sociology of Identity Politics in Contemporary India Dr. Manoj Kumar Haldar	128